

Winged Beasts

DIY paper ornaments

Materials

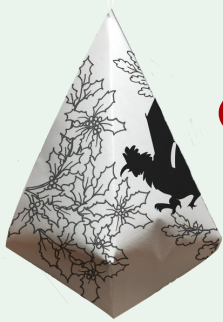

- A4 Paper or card (110 - 200 GSM)
- Colouring things (pencils/ pens etc)
- Ruler
- Scissors / craft knife
- Table knife / bone folder
- Thin ribbon, string or embroidery thread 12cm +
- Sticky tape
- Glue or double sided sticky tape

Making

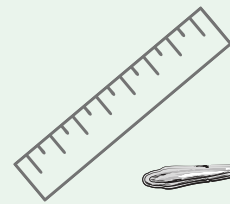

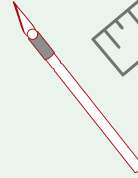

1. Print templates. The heavier the paper, the easier it is to assemble
2. Colour to your heart's desire
3. Cut out your template along the white edge.
4. Scoring & Folding (scoring makes folding accurately much easier)
Scoring: with a ruler as a guide, run the back of a table knife or bone folder...
 - a. Front along the tab lines (see 4a)

4a. Scoring tab lines

Winged Beasts

Making continued

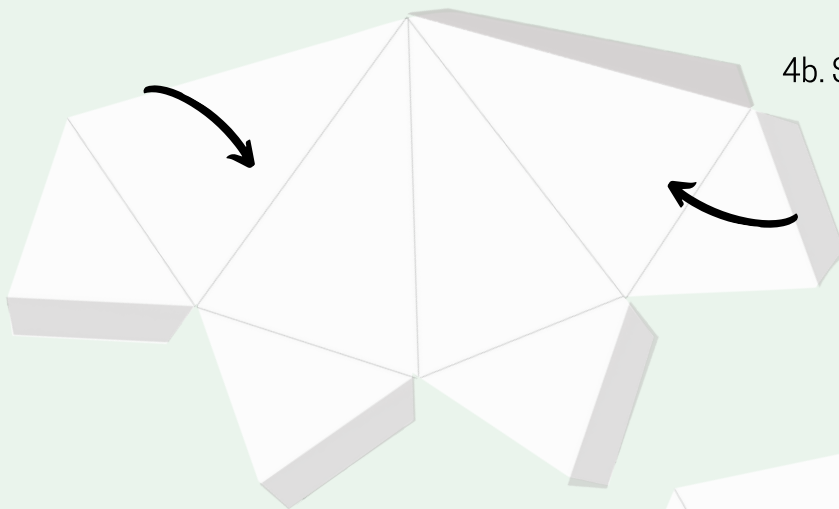

4. Scoring & Folding (scoring makes folding accurately much easier)

Scoring: with a ruler as a guide, run the back of a table knife or bone folder...

b. Back (see 4b)

Folding: Crease all scored lines, plain sides together

Point A

4b. Scoring folding lines

5. At the tip of the triangles use sticky tape to fix your ribbon to the back.

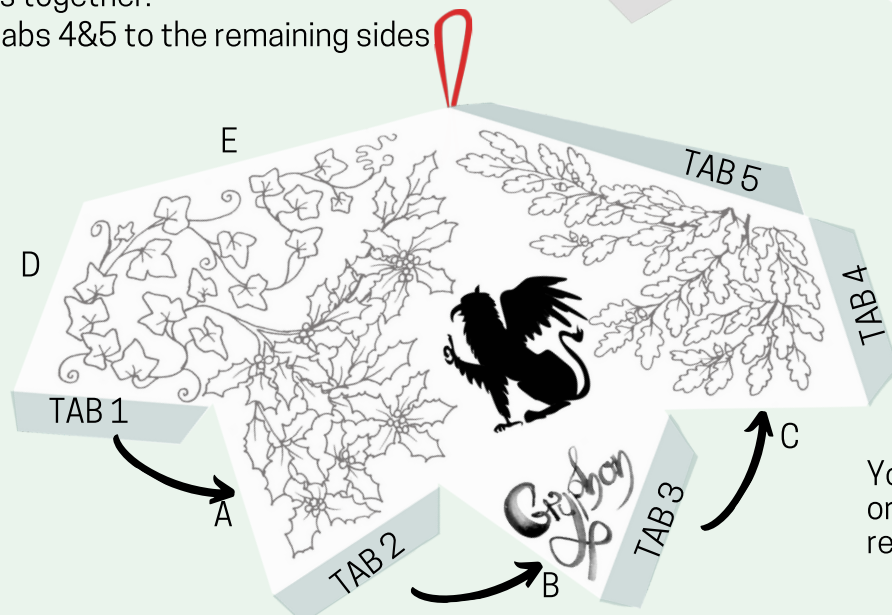

6. Ribbon & tape

6. Assemble shape

Use glue or double sided sticky tape to connect tabs 1,2 & 3 under neath side A,B & C. Use your finger tips to help press the surfaces together.

Then stick tabs 4&5 to the remaining sides D& E.

Your Winged Beast ornament is now ready to hang up!

Winged Beasts

Gryphon

Often to be found guarding treasure the Gryphon has the head, wings and claws of an Eagle and the body, tail and back legs of a Lion.

Yule / Christmas
decorations

- Print
- Colour
- Cut
- Score
- Fold
- Glue

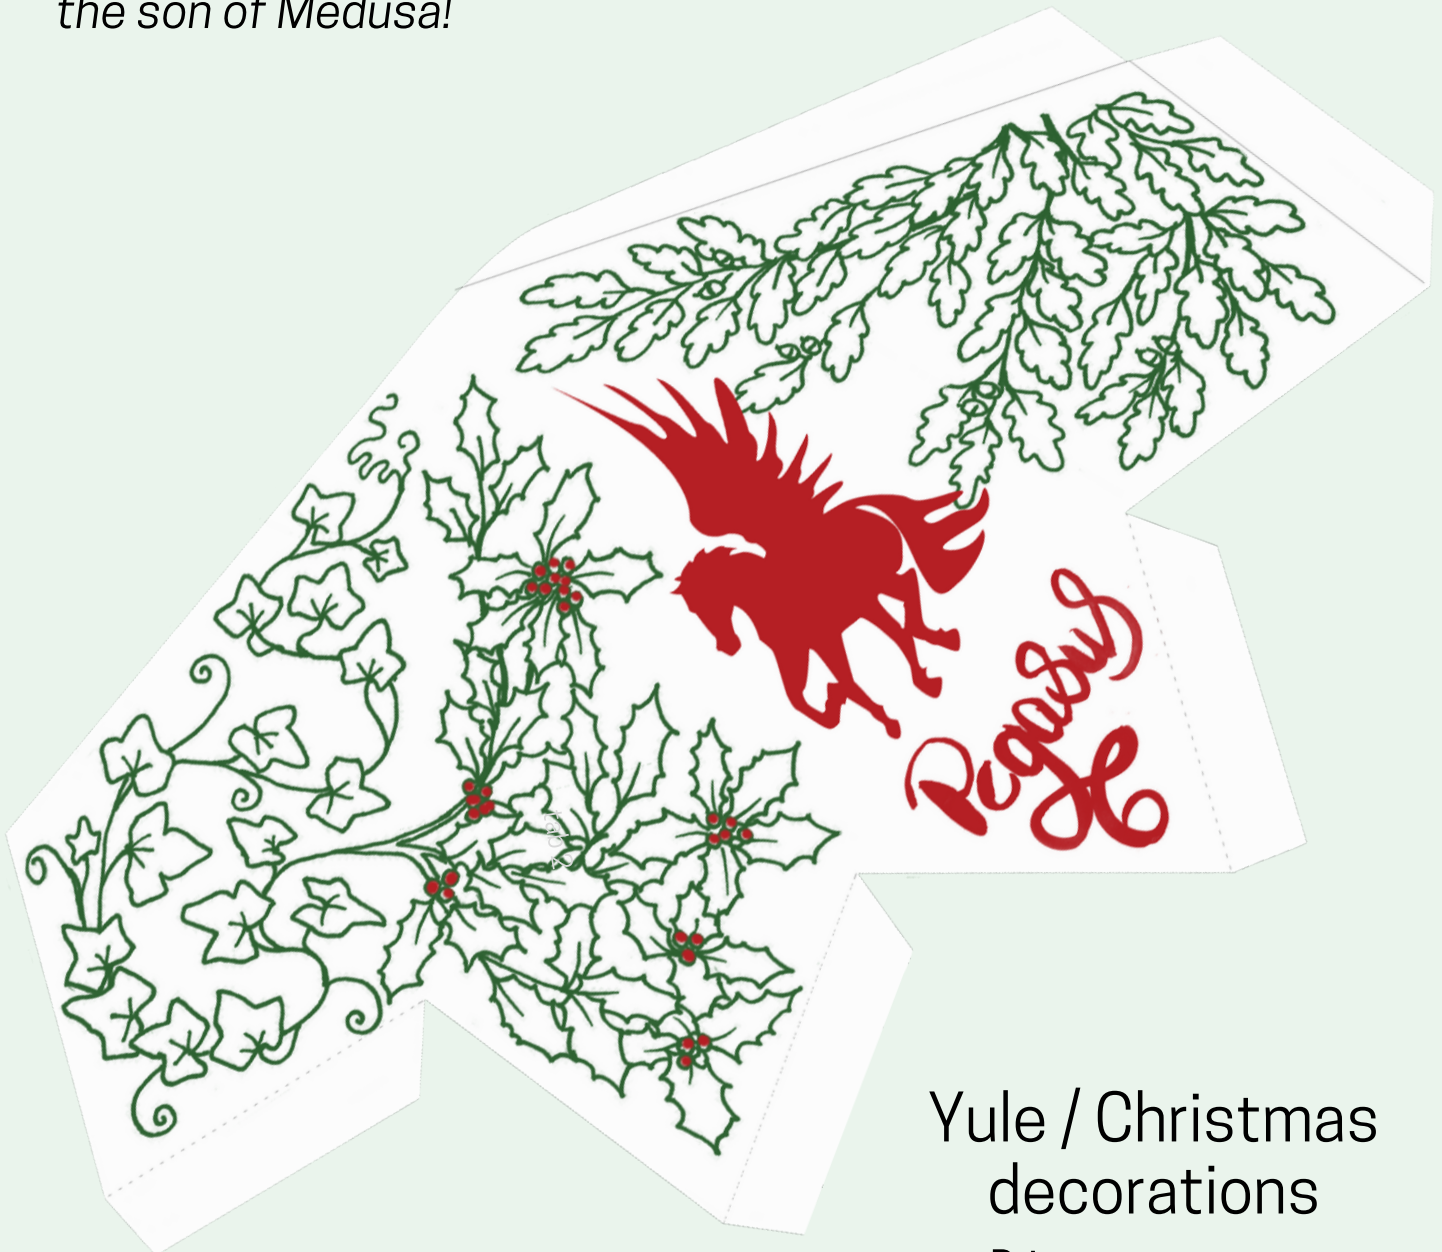

@spikedeane_art

Winged Beasts

Pegasus

When his hooves touched the earth, water would spring forth. Pegasus the winged horse was the son of Medusa!

Yule / Christmas decorations

- Print
- Colour
- Cut
- Score
- Fold
- Glue

@spikedeane_art

Winged Beasts

Cockatrice

Hatched by a serpent from the egg of a cockerel, the Cockatrice is a monstrous snake-chicken!

Yule / Christmas
decorations

- Print
- Colour
- Cut
- Score
- Fold
- Glue

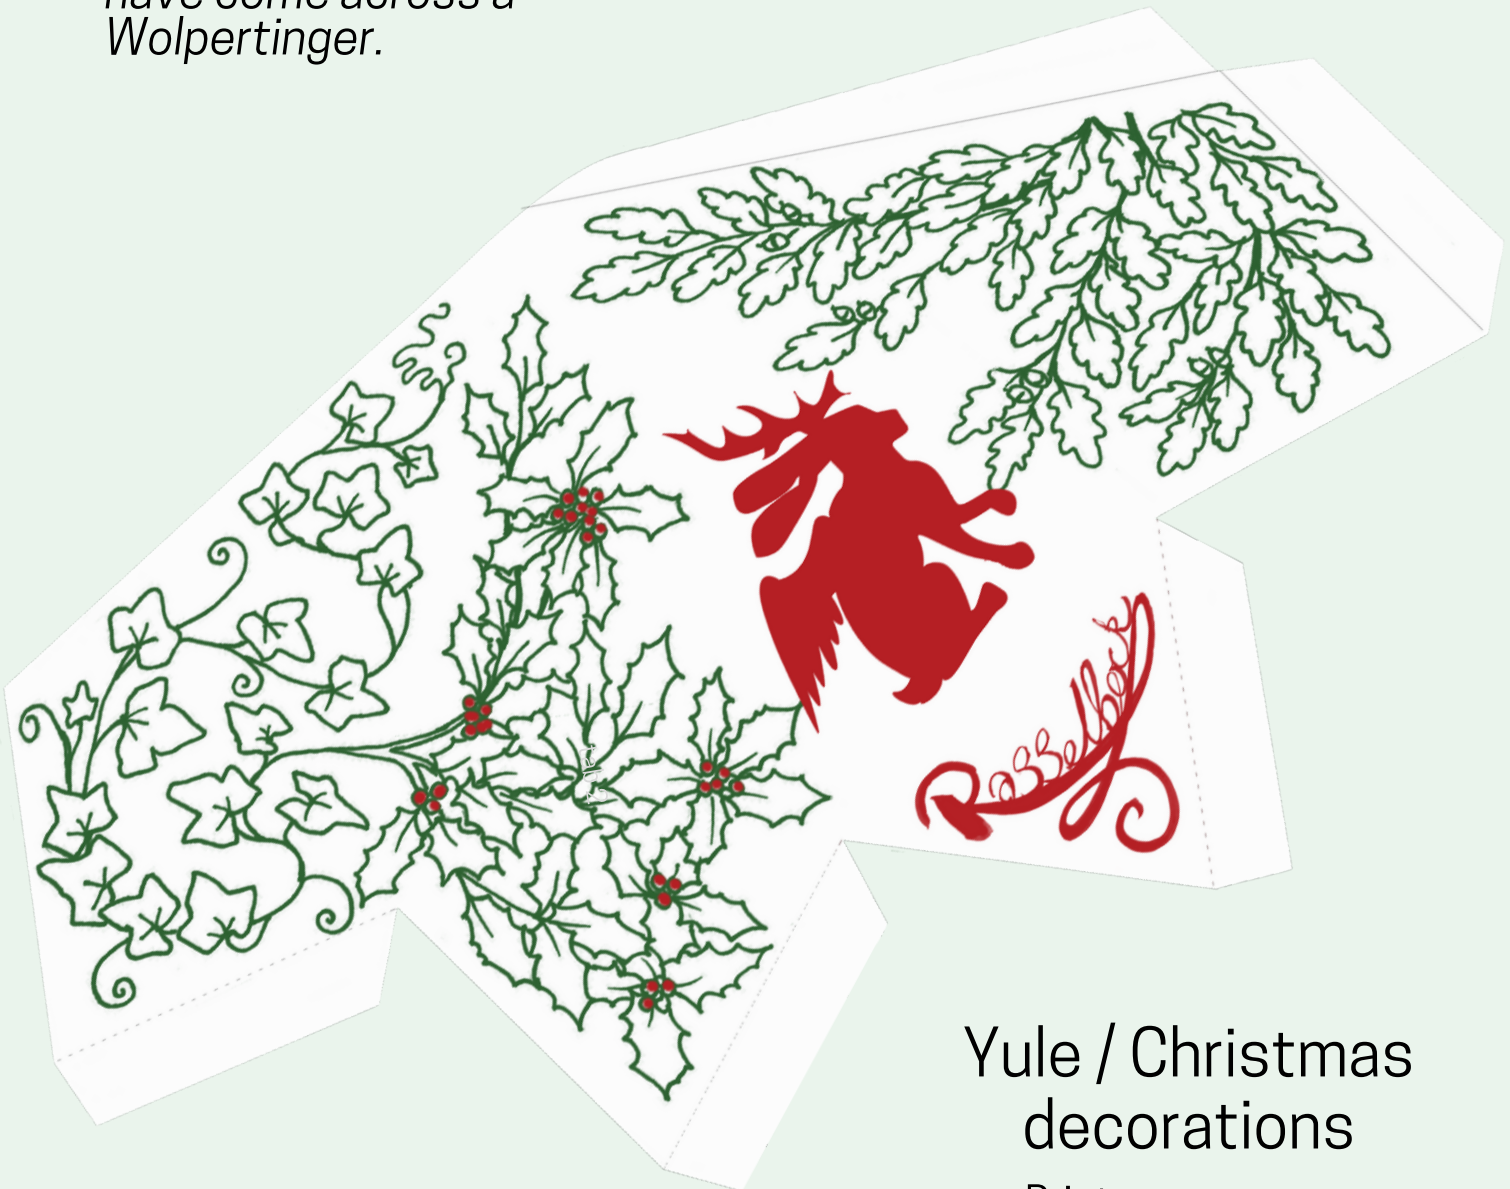

@spikedeane_art

Winged Beasts

Rasselbock

Also known as a Jackalope, the Rasselbock is a shy creature. If you spot a Hare with wings, antlers and fangs you may have come across a Wolpertinger.

Yule / Christmas decorations

- Print
- Colour
- Cut
- Score
- Fold
- Glue

@spikedeane_art